For Your Diary: Bishop James of Rochester is making a visit to the Deanery of Tonbridge in the first 2 weeks of July. On Wednesday 5 July at 8pm at St Stephen's Church Tonbridge, everyone is invited to hear him speak on his ministry to Prisons, and more generally about current issues in our Diocese. He will also respond to questions. This is a great opportunity to meet Bishop James and feel more in touch with the wider church, and we hope Edenbridge will be well represented!

Holy Trinity Crockham hill: Part of our 175th Anniversary Celebrations is a special evening service of music and readings on Sunday 9th July at 6.30pm to 'Celebrate 175 Years' as we give thanks for the past and look with hope to the future. Mark Brown the Rural Dean of Tonbridge will be our preacher and we will be serving refreshments after the service. We would like to extend an invitation of the whole family of the 6 churches of the ECC to come and celebrate with us.

There will be a sheet at the back of the Church in due course so that we can give an idea of how many of us will be going along.

TRINITY A

COLLECT

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself
as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love.
Hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three persons in one God,
now and for ever.

FIRST READING Isaiah 40:12-17, 27-31 NRSV

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?
Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, or as his counsellor has instructed him?
Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice?
Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?
Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket,
and are accounted as dust on the scales;
see, he takes up the isles like fine dust.
Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt-offering.
All the nations are as nothing before him;
they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.
Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel,
'My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God?'
Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.
He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted;
but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.

NT READING 2 Cor 13:11-13 NRSV

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

GRADUAL HYMN TS68

Behold the glory long concealed, though to the prophet shown.
In dark mysterious cloud once sealed,
this majesty is now revealed, to mortal sight made known! (2)

The Father of eternal love his Son incarnate gave,
with grace and glory from above,
the death of death itself to prove,
and Adam's children save. (2)

With joy and praise, eternally, creation will resound,
to Father, Son and Spirit, three,
one undivided Trinity.
O Mystery profound! (2)

GOSPEL READING Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."
